

Power Your Story

Summer Journalism Camp
June 9-15
Morehead State University
Grades 9-12

- Learn about convergent media and journalism
- Experience the life of a working journalist
- Develop relationships with journalist-mentors
- Create a multi-media profile
- Research a locally important journalistic topic
- Develop skills with many career applications
- Live and work on a college campus

Offered in cooperation with WMKY Morehead Public Radio, Morehead State's Convergent Media program, and the Trail Blazer, the camp is sponsored by a grant from the MacArthur Foundation's Journalism and Media Program offered through the National Writing Project.

Featured journalists include:

Leeann Akers – WMKY News Director

John Flavell – Instructor of Convergent Media at MSU and working journalist

Chuck Mraz – retired WMKY News Director

Stephanie Ockerman – Morehead News Editor

Electronic application due March 15.

Camp participants will receive food and housing for June 9-15, instruction and production support, t-shirt, and Student ID card.

Learn more: <http://moreheadwritingproject.org/journalism-camp/>

MoreheadWritingProject.org ~ (606)783-2426

Program Assisant: Kelli Besselman – kmbesselman@moreheadstate.edu