SCHOOL!

The teacher team you select will work with their mentor coach to design and lead a literacy event for your students that will also serve as literacy professional development for your faculty

COMPREHENSIVE LITERACY

Reading and writing are integrally linked and both play a key role in critical thinking. Writing project teachers learn how to leverage all 3 in one lesson!

ESSENTIAL SKILLS

Active learning that supports essential skills including listening, speaking, problem-solving, creativity, staying positive, aiming high, leadership, and teamwork are integrated into writing project work.

SEL

Writing and reading together supports social and emotional learning by developing self-awareness, social awareness, relationship skills, and responsible decision making.
